Genoa, Sept. 20. N. S. Four Palaces are preparing at this Place, for the Accommodation of the King of Spain and his Retinue, his Majeſty being expected here from Barcelona towards the End of this Month; and it is thought that there will be an Interview between the King and his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Savoy, at ſome Place belonging to this Republick, ſoon after his Majeſty's Arrival. Yeſterday a Review was made of the Genoeſe Troops, that are appointed to attend his Catholick Majeſty from hence to Novi. The Army which ſerv'd this laſt Campaign in Piedmont have paſs'd the Mountains; but part of the Forces are order'd to remain, for ſome time, at Flet, Lombardoro, and other adjacent Places, the better to obſerve the Enemy, and prevent their making any great Detachments to Catalonia. They write from Madrid, that Count Bergeick was arriv'd there from Corella, and had brought with him ſeveral Artificers out of Flanders, with an Intent to regulate and improve the Manufactures of Spain. Two Tartans, that ſail'd lately with the Flotilla from Cadix, parted from them eight Days after, off the Canaries, from whence they were continuing their Voyage, with a fair Wind for New Spain. Theſe Tartans return'd the Fifth Inſtant to Cadix, where they report, that they had receiv'd Intelligence at Sea, that Monſieur du Caſſe was ſafely arriv'd with his Squadron at Carthagena, and was on the Point of returning for Europe with the Galeons, which they expect at Cadix towards the End of the next Month. It is reported here, that ſix French Men of War are cruiſing off the Hight of Lisbon, in order to intercept the Fleet expected from Braſil. Signior Vincent Durazzo, our late Doge, having finiſh'd the Term of his Government, which he has adminiſtred to the univerſal Satisfaction of the People, was on the Fourteenth Inſtant conducted to his Houſe with a general Cavalcade of the Nobility, according to the uſual Forms; and on the Seventeenth Signior Francis Imperiali was choſen to ſucceed him.

Milan, Sept. 22. N. S. We are making all the neceſſary Preparations for the Reception of his Catholick Majeſty, who is ſpeedily expected at this Place, in his Paſſage through Italy into the Empire. We are advis'd from Barcelona, that both Armies continue in their former Poſts, the Enemy endeavouring all they can to avoid an Engagement. The French have lately ſeiz'd ſeveral Perſons, who are accus'd of a Deſign to ſet Fire to their Magazines of Ammunition; to which, they ſay, they were engag'd by large Promiſes from General Staremberg. The Duke of Anjou's Court continues at Corella, it being not yet known when that Prince will remove to Madrid. He has lately diſpos'd of ſeveral conſiderable Employments; in which, regard has been particularly had to ſuch as have appear'd on all Occaſions to be moſt zealous in his Service.

Cologn, Octob. 2. N. S. On the Twenty-eighth of the laſt Month the Dutch Reſident, Monſieur Bilderbeek, having receiv'd Advice of the Birth of the young Prince of Naſſau, Hereditary Governour of Frizeland, that Miniſter gave a very magnificent Entertainment to ſeveral Perſons of Quality reſiding here, on that Occaſion. On Sunday laſt the Prince of Heſſe arriv'd at Bon, and purſu'd his Journy from thence to Caſſel the Day following. They write from Hamburgh, that on the Twenty-fourth of the laſt Month, a Party of Two hundred Horſe having been detach'd from the Daniſh Camp near Wiſmar, to get Intelligence, fell in with a Body of Three hundred Suedes, belonging to the Garriſon of that Place, and after an hot Engagement, wherein many were ſlain on both Sides, they forc'd them to retire under the Cannon of the Town. Monſieur Puttendorf, who Commanded the Danes was mortally Wounded on this Occaſion, and carry'd Priſoner into Wiſmar; and Lieutenant-Colonel Reichel, who had the Command of the Suediſh Party is likewiſe Dead of his Wounds.

Whitehaven, Octob. 5. Yeſterday the Friendſhip and William and Mary, both of this Port, arriv'd ſafe from Virginia, but laſt from Belfaſt: Theſe Ships left the Cape of Virginia about ten Days after the laſt Fleet, and had forty Days paſſage to Ireland. Three light Colliers return'd from Dublin the ſame Tide.

Plymouth, Octob. 7. Yeſterday Sail'd the Judith and John and Mary, both for Guernſey. This Day paſs'd by this Harbour, the Newcaſtle, Guernſey and Sweepſtakes, and under
